Due: May 1, 2018 to School Counselor

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION SHEET FOR BADGER HIGH SCHOOL COLLEGE BOUND SENIORS

In remembrance of all deceased members of the Kinsman and Badger High School Faculty, a scholarship is offered annually.

KINSMAN HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION---$1,000.00

CRITERIA:

I. The applicant must be a graduating senior of Joseph Badger High School.

II. The recipient of this scholarship must accept the award at the regular dinner meeting of the association. The date and location of the dinner meeting will be provided to the recipient. Failure to attend this meeting and remain for 10 minutes after the conclusion (expect for a severe emergency) will automatically forfeit the scholarship. The recipient will be introduced to the alumni members present, which will afford the recipient an opportunity to thank the group for the scholarship.

III. The application will be judged on personal and academic qualities and the quality of the essay. (see VI. Below)

IV. The applications will be judged and a scholarship recipient selected by the Kinsman High School Alumni Scholarship Selection Committee.

V. *Scholarship funds must be claimed within 90 days of the successful completion of the first term of study. A Kinsman Alumni officer should be contacted for the issuance of a check. (Successful completion means the recipient was a full time student who maintained a minimum of a 2.5 GPA and is academically eligible to go on to a 2nd term.)

VI. On an attached sheet, write on a typewriter or computer, an essay with a minimum of 600 words on this subject: "These are the goals I have set for my life; how my education has helped me thus far, and how I expect college to help me further meet these goals."

VII. Turn in to the guidance counselor this information sheet, the essay, evaluation sheet and personal comments from three (3) teachers.

VIII. Include a paragraph of recommendation from a member of the community other than a relative.
